

LanBox-LCX truss mount Kit

Caution

Always comply to local rules and regulations when suspending any equipment above public areas. If the LanBox-LCX is suspended in a location where it could be potentially hazardous if the mounting would get loose, additional precautionary measures should be taken. Always use a safety steel.

LanBox Products can not be held responsible for any damage or injury caused by irresponsible use of any of its equipment and by not observing safety regulations.

